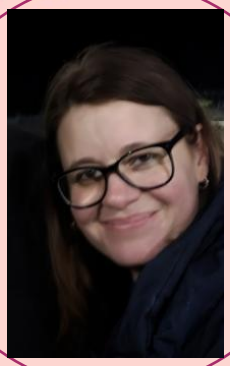
Meet the Teacher

Mrs Rigby



About me:

Hello! I am Mrs Rigby. I am really looking forward to meeting you all and cannot wait to have lots of different adventures together over the next year – starting with Aylmerton! I live with my husband and our eight year old son called James who I always share lots of stories about and we have an axolotl called Axy!

A list of my favourite things

I really like:

- Baking
- Coffee!!
- Theatre shows

A fun fact about me

I am part of an amateur dramatics company and take part in their pantomimes every year!

Be sure to come and say hello to me before September so I can put some names to faces!
